The train from the South did not arrive until 8:45 last night, having waited for the delayed West-bound train on the Southern Pacific.

Lost—This afternoon, near the Lemon Hotel, a heavy gold watch, No. 48,347. Suitable reward for return of same. George H. Cox, Lemon Hotel.

Dr. W. J. White has sold to Wm. Ruff, the thrasher man, his fine section of land located about five miles southeast of Tempe, under the Lehi extension. The price paid is understood to have been $10,000.

Jack Ayres mourns the loss of his fine imported Norman Stallion. The animal was suffering when bought in the East with an asthmatic trouble, and the best of care could not save him. He was valued at $2,300.

Dr. J. H. Taggart, of Yuma, sent the Governor yesterday two boxes containing four varieties of beautiful ripe grapes—Muscats, Malagas, Black Hamburg and Black Morocco. Yuma certainly excels in the fruit production, both as to quality and in the early time at which they ripen. With such evidences of wonderful production she is certain to soon take first rank in the fruit line.

Tom—Queer fellow, that Imison; he has no head for business, and he doesn't seem to know it.

Jack—That's so. He has failed in everything he has tried—with one exception.

Tom—What is that?

Jack—As an editor. He is the successful editor of the Business World.

Texas Editor—A Mormon editor is in jail for supporting four wives.

Wife—You say he was an editor?

"That's the way it reads."

"And he supported four wives?"

"Just so."

"Well, I don't believe it."—Texas Siftings.
